Indian origin director's movie "The Distance Between Us" selected for International film festival

Posted On: 17 Jun 2014

Indian origin independent film maker Chandu Yarram's début movie, "The Distance Between Us", has been officially selected for the prestigious "The World's Independent Film Festival (TWIFF)" and the "Greater Washington Immigration Film Festival (GWIFF)".

The movie revolves around the love affair of two young Indian immigrants Megha and Ravi who work as software engineers. For Megha, her career is an opportunity to break free from the shackles of poverty in which she was born into.

However, success doesn't come that easily without sacrifice. And, in bid to fulfill their dreams that have to choose between love and ambition. The movie is a tale of broken ambitions but the triumph of the human spirit.

Director Chandu Yarram has also written the story of the movie, while Sanjay Currie is the executive producer. The movie features Rahul Rai, Leah Kavita, Akshay Reddy, Ariane Mallon , Ashok Chaudhry, Jonah Ehrenreich, Nicken Kotak, Cesar di Parra, Linda Elizabeth, Scott Gorbach, Roni Mazumdar, Axita Patel, and many others.

The movie has been entirely shot in the United States, in New Jersey, Delaware and Pennsylvania.
